Democratic State Convention.

A meeting of the State Central Committee was held at Indiana, on the 2d inst., at which is held a Democratic State Convention was resolved that a Democratic State Convention be held in that city on Wednesday, the 24th day.

May next, to nominate candidates for Secretary of State, Auditor of State, Treasurer of State, and Superintendent of Public Instruction. An apportionment of delegates to the several counties was made, on the ratio of one delegate for every 200 democratic votes given at the late Presidential Election, and one additional for every fractional vote over 100. Under this apportionment Allen county will be entitled to 10 delegates; Adams 5, Wells 3, Huntington 4, Whitley 3, De Kalb 4, Steuben 3, Noble 4, Lagrange 3, Elkhart 7, Kosciusko 5.

Democratic City Meeting.

The Democrats of the city of Fort Wayne are requested to meet at the Court House, on Saturday evening, February 25th, at 7 o'clock, P. M., to nominate a Mayor, one Councilman for each ward, High Constable, Street Commissioner and other offices to be filled at the City Election, to be held on the first Monday of March, 1854.

By order of the Committee.

PETER KISER, Chairman.

February 4th, 1854.

Prospect of War.

The fore goin news, this week, is decidedly warlike. The Russian ministers have been recalled from London and Paris. England and France are making vigorous preparations to send troops to Turkey; a large fleet has been sent to the Baltic, to blockade the northern outlet of Russia; and Austria and Prussia are reported to have decided not to support the Czar in his arrogant pretensions. We look upon a general European war as inevitable. Active operations may not commence until spring; but in the meanwhile the great actors are making ready for their several parts in the bloody drama.

Russia now seems to stand alone, with the greater part of Europe arrayed against her. The result we cannot look upon as doubtful. The strife may be long and bloody, but in the end the powerful and haughty Czar must succumb if nothing else effect the lambing of the power of this arrogant despot, the preservation of the integrity of the Ottoman Empire and of the balance of power in Europe, will be a blessing to the human race and to the cause of human freedom. He is now the embodiment, the main stay and prop of despotism, arbitrary power, and brute force. He is always ready to crush the oppressed on their first efforts to obtain their rights, and the liberties and independence of the most of Europe are in danger of being destroyed by his overwhelming power and ambition.

We hope now to see him humbled and shorn of his tremendous power for evil. Shut him up in his own frozen regions, and destroy the prestige of his supposed great resources and irresistible power, and Europe will be safe. Every country will feel at liberty to regulate its own affairs without dread of foreign interference; and whenever the oppressed become ripe for freedom, they may safely strike the blow that is to emanate them.

In this view, we look upon the war, however dreadful and bloody it may be, as a blessing. The remedy, it is true, will be a severe one, but desperate cases require desperate remedies. The humbling of Russia, which we hope to see effected by this war, is well worth the sacrifice necessary to accomplish it.

The NEBRASKA BILL is in full blast, and occupying a considerable portion of the time of both branches of Congress. The slavery agitation has been renewed by this measure, and it seems to engage the public attention almost exclusively. Our members of congress find nothing else to talk about; the papers are full of meetings being held all over the country to sustain or condemn the measure; in short, the people of the United States seem to be laboring under a malignant attack of nigger-phobia. We are sick of the very name, and hope—or rather pray—that Congress will speedily put an end to the matter, and dispose of the measure, either one way or the other. The white people have some interests that ought to be attended to, as well as the black ones; and though our politicians and statesmen do not seem to appreciate the fact, it is true nevertheless, that at least a portion of the time might be advantageously employed in some other way than in this eternal din about slavery, free soil, compromises, &c.

Which is the Railroad City?—On James' New Railroad Map we find 13 railroads, centering at Fort Wayne, 12 at Cleaverville, and 12 at Indianapolis. The latter place has been assuming the title of the Railroad City, and giving itself many airs in consequence. They will have to look out; we are after them, and expect shortly to claim the title as of right belonging to Fort Wayne. We shall not only have the most railroads, but also the best and most important ones in the State, as can be readily ascertained by examining the map, and tracing the routes of our roads.

In view of the great influx of strangers that must necessarily be brought here when our railroads get into operation, should not some steps be at once taken for the erection of one or more first class hotels? They will certainly be needed. All our hotels now are filled, and of course would be entirely inadequate to accommodate the crowds who will inevitably visit us when the railroads afford increased facilities of travel. Some of our wealthy citizens ought to look to this matter at once.

While on this subject, we would also call attention to the great necessity there is for more dwellings. We have no doubt that hundreds will be added to the population of our city the coming season, and houses will be needed for their accommodation. There is not a vacant house to be had at this time, and we feel confident that if one or even two hundred were erected they would find immediate occupants.

Democratic City Meeting.—The democratic meeting to nominate candidates for City Officers will be held at the Court House, this evening at 7 o'clock. All are interested in this matter; we hope there may be a general attendance, and a good ticket selected.

The readers of the Times can rest at a first glance that the editor has returned. We do not perceive that either his temper or his judgment has been much improved by his trip.

Crawfordsville, Frankfort, Kokomo, & Fort Wayne Railroad.—We have not heard much from this road lately, and did not know but the project had been abandoned. We are happy to learn, however, that it is still going ahead. The Frankfort Crescent of the 18th inst. says:

"We understand, the contractors, Messrs. Jackson, Brown & Co. will be here in a few days with their forces to commence work on that portion of the road located between this place and Indiana, on the 2d inst., at which is held a Democratic State Convention. We suppose the breakers are still engaged in preparing the mid of our citizens with whom & objections on the practicability of this project is not able and we are as usual the work will be presented to proceede as speedily as possible."

MARYLAND.—Hon. James A. Pearce, who has been reelected to the U. S. Senate for 6 years from the 4th March, 1855, when his present term expires.

WING TRICKERY.—The whigs in Baltimore previous to the last election, assumed to be great advocates of Temperance and Prohibition Laws. By their hollow pretensions they hoped to enough to elect the members of the Legislature. The answer from England and France to the Russian envoys respecting the entry of the fleets, was delivered on the 1st. The terms of the reply did not transpire. The Russian minister, is reported to have withdrawn from Paris, and the minister at London was to leave on the 5th. England is sending small steamers to take soundings of the entrance to the Baltic for the 11th.

At a council held at the Tuilleries on the 30th of January, the question of sending a land force to Turkey, was fully discussed. It is proposed to send 80,000 men. England will send only a small force, but will pay half of the expenses. The British army is to be increased by 11,000 men.

No change had occurred at Kalemis since the last report. On the Danube, although abstaining from great operations, the Turks give the Russians no rest.

Parliament was opened on the 31st. The crowd was much greater than usual. On the road to the House the Queen was greatly cheered, but Prince Albert was occasionally hissed.

The Turkish Minister was loudly cheered. The House was unusually full of splendid costumes.—No members of American delegation present. The Master of Ceremonies had sent note to all Diplomatic members to appear in the centre of Bagdad. One crossed in person at Oosten, and delayed the Rast in arriving, the wing of which is at Bagdad, the left at Granada and the centre at Oosten, and at last accounts was but two days distant from Bagdad, where the Russian force is weak.

It is expected that Smith O'Brien will be pardoned.

The Cloven Foot Disclosed.—The Whig Bulletin.

What a modifying exhibition of political chicanery presents itself to the editorial of the American of Friday last developed. And if that article is a true exponent of the purposes and ends sought by naming the Maine Law ticket, that in what a humiliating posture are the Baltimore Deliberates placed! while a posture those democats placed when it is suggested that ticket in this city—is what the Baltimore and Marylander port of the American's Baltimore, and unvarnished port of the American's Baltimore, and the Legislature of Maryland. I suppose that the Whig party through its central Committee, happens of issuing a Whig ticket in Baltimore, in spite of the Maine Law ticket, for the purpose of electing five Whigs to the city, and securing a Whig! S. Foster and a Whig majority in the Legislature, and with no idea of creating a proslavery law, on the contrary, it is to oppose such a law as reunites to the Committee of Baltimore. The question now arises whether the Democratic party, and did they understand it—was the harbinger and appliances against intemperance, all a deception? One thing is certain clear from this exposition of Whig tactics. The Whig leaders, knowing that a prohibitory liquor law was wrong in principle and would be a vital blow to the commercial interests of this city—stated that Commercial interest, harassed the business welfare and Grocery Capital of the City, to procure Whig ascendancy—and supposed that the Ma law was meant to represent and protect the interests of Baltimore would be pliant parties to the political gambling.

What shall we say of those who were willing thus to hazard and perhaps sacrifice, the admitted and true interests of this City to carry out a political game, to secure office and ascendancy for their political friends. Will the Whig leaders admit that they are the instruments of this game, that the law was not called for or needed, but would be ruinous to Baltimore, but that they acceded to the movement to secure a Whig Treasurer! Senator. The American now justly fixes the passage of this law, and claims represent the commerce and interests of this city. It turns out at the impending punishment of their whig enemies—these self-glorified leaders of the friend party set up a new argument—that the law is a vital blow to the commercial interests of this city—stated that Commercial interest, harassed the business welfare and Grocery Capital of the City, to procure Whig ascendancy—and supposed that the Ma law was meant to represent and protect the interests of Baltimore would be pliant parties to the political gambling.

Will the Whig leaders admit that they are the instruments of this game, that the law was not called for or needed, but would be ruinous to Baltimore, but that they acceded to the movement to secure a Whig Treasurer! Senator. The American now justly fixes the passage of this law, and claims represent the commerce and interests of this city. It turns out at the impending punishment of their whig enemies—these self-glorified leaders of the friend party set up a new argument—that the law is a vital blow to the commercial interests of this city—stated that Commercial interest, harassed the business welfare and Grocery Capital of the City, to procure Whig ascendancy—and supposed that the Ma law was meant to represent and protect the interests of Baltimore would be pliant parties to the political gambling.

What shall we say of those who were willing thus to hazard and perhaps sacrifice, the admitted and true interests of this City to carry out a political game, to secure office and ascendancy for their political friends. Will the Whig leaders admit that they are the instruments of this game, that the law was not called for or needed, but would be ruinous to Baltimore, but that they acceded to the movement to secure a
